

1995 Lady Lancer Soccer

Longwood vs. Chowan, Tuesday, October 17, 1995

Today's Match-Up

Longwood (13-1-1 overall; 7-1-1 CVAC) and Chowan (0-10-0) are meeting in women's soccer for the second time ever today.

Last year, the Lady Lancers pinned a 3-0 defeat on the Braves, who are members of NCAA Division III.

Lady Lancers Have 10 Shutouts

LC Nabs Two More Wins

Winning its fourth straight game, Longwood shut-out host Erskine 3-0 Saturday afternoon as freshman Beth Portell scored two goals and Tina Tsironis added two assists. With freshman Eryn Craft in goal, the Lady Lancers captured their 10th shutout victory of the season.

Now 13-1-1 overall and 7-1-1 in the Carolinas-Virginia Athletic Conference, Longwood has clinched a first round home game in the CVAC Women's Soccer Tournament. Coach Todd Dyer's squad will play its first tourney contest next Tuesday (Oct. 24) at 1:00 on First Avenue Field. The tournament semifinals and finals will be Oct. 28-29 at Coker in Hartsville, S.C.

Longwood Winds Up Regular Season

Winding up the regular season at home this week, Longwood hosts Chowan today and entertains CVAC foe Coker Saturday at 4:00.

Saturday, Portell scored in the first half on an assist from Tsironis to put Longwood up 1-0 at the half. Portell, this week's Longwood College Women's Player of the Week (see back of this program), scored unassisted 13 minutes into the second half. Freshman Kiele Munnikhuysen notched her 11th goal of the season with an assist from Tsironis to close out the scoring.

Dyer credited Craft with three huge saves against Erskine. The freshman keeper used both hands to smother a breakaway from point-blank range, tipped away a high, looping shot, and dived to deflect another kick off a set play.

The coach also complimented midfielder Corey

Benderoth for her play on defense.

Tsironis, Munnikhuysen Lead Scoring Statistics

Tsironis and Munnikhuysen continue to lead the scoring statistics for Longwood women's soccer. With 15 goals and four assists, Tsironis has 34 points to lead, while Munnikhuysen has 11 goals and three assists for 25 points.

Coming on strong last week, Portell now has seven goals and eight assists for 22 points. Senior Julia Fera has seven goals and three assists for 17 points, and freshman Sheena McGloine has four goals and two assists for 10 points.

Craft has an outstanding goals-against-average of 0.68, ranking near the top in the Carolinas-Virginia Athletic Conference goalkeeper statistics.
