

LONGWOOD

UNIVERSITY

WOMEN'S SOCCER VS. RADFORD SUNDAY, AUGUST 28, 2005 LANCER FIELD, 1 P.M.

The Longwood University women's soccer team, along with the institution's athletics department, welcomes everyone to Lancer Field. The Lancers, members of the newly-formed United Soccer Conference (women's soccer-only), are hosting Radford University for today's 2005 home opener at Lancer Field. Longwood is competing this season in year three of its four-year NCAA Division I Reclassification toward official certification in September 2007.

Longwood (0-1) is coached by 12th-year head coach Todd Dyer '93 (128-67-8), assisted by second-year assistant coach Steve Brdarski. Radford (0-1) is coached by head coach Ben Sohrabi, assisted by James Ashley. The Lancers and Highlanders have only met one time previously in women's soccer, a 3-0 RU victory last September 3 in Radford.

Longwood plays today following a season-opening 2-1 loss at Campbell University this past Friday night in North Carolina. Sophomore Aynsley Birkner scored the LU goal, assisted by junior Tiffany Crane. Sophomore keeper Anne Whitmore made three saves. Radford, of the Big South Conference, plays today after a season-opening 3-1 loss at Old Dominion, played this past Friday night as well in Norfolk.

Longwood will play again on Saturday, September 3, at The Citadel in Charleston, South Carolina and remains on the road to play at Western Carolina in Cullowhee, North Carolina September 9. Radford will play again next Sunday, September 4, hosting UMBC.
